RANGER ENERGY SERVICES ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF TWO NEW INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

October 31, 2023

Carla Mashinski and Sean Woolverton Bring Decades of Leadership Experience in the Oil and Natural Gas Industry

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ranger Energy Services (NYSE: RNGR) ("Ranger" or the "Company") announced today the appointment of Carla Mashinski and Sean Woolverton to its Board of Directors (the "Board"), effective January 1, 2024. In conjunction with the appointment of Ms. Mashinski and Mr. Woolverton, William Austin, Ranger's Chairman of the Board, and Richard Agee will retire from the Ranger Board of Directors, effective December 31, 2023. The Board has unanimously elected Michael Kearney to succeed Mr. Austin as Chairman upon his retirement.

"We are excited to welcome Carla and Sean to the Board," commented Michael Kearney, Chairman-elect of Ranger's Board. "Carla and Sean are accomplished executives with decades of experience in the oil and gas industry. They were selected as part of the Board's ongoing process to periodically enrich the Board with additional expertise and perspectives. Ranger's Board performed a comprehensive search that was conducted with the assistance of a nationally recognized executive search firm. As the Board engaged with Carla and Sean over the last several months, it was evident that their expertise will serve Ranger, its Board and its shareholders well, and we look forward to working with them as we continue to position the Company for sustainable growth."

Mr. Kearney added, "On behalf of the Company, I would also like to thank Bill Austin and Dick Agee for their years of service and dedication to Ranger. The Board has benefitted greatly from their significant industry expertise and their many insights and contributions to our strategy. Both Bill and Dick have been instrumental in Ranger's growth and success, and we are deeply appreciative of the steady leadership and guidance they have provided during their tenures. We wish them all the best following their retirement from the Board."

Mr. Austin commented, "As Chairman of the Board of Ranger for the past several years, it has been my honor to work with my colleagues on the Board and leadership team to help guide the Company, and I am proud of our many accomplishments together."

"I am confident that the changes we announced today will position the Company well for the future," Mr. Austin continued. "Carla and Sean are seasoned executives with strong leadership skills, operational and financial and management expertise and track records of successfully growing and improving companies. Mike Kearney has been a strong contributor on the Ranger Board and I am confident that he will be an effective Chairman. I am excited about the Company's future, and I look forward to watching the continued success of Ranger unfold."

Ranger concurrently announced Q3 2023 earnings today, which are outlined in a separate press release.
