

RANGER ENERGY SERVICES, INC.
(“COMPANY”)

CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ADOPTED OCTOBER 26, 2023

I. Purpose

The Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities. The Committee’s primary purposes and functions are:

- Discharging the Board of Director’s responsibility for the overall oversight of the Company’s compensation and benefits philosophy;
- discharging the Board of Director’s responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s directors and executive officers;
- approving and evaluating all compensation of directors and executive officers, including salaries, bonuses, and compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company; and
- administering all plans of the Company under which shares of common stock may be acquired by directors or executive officers of the Company.

The Committee has the authority, in its sole discretion to retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other adviser to advise the Committee. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any such consultant, counsel or other adviser. The Company shall at all times make adequate provisions for the payment of all reasonable fees and other compensation, as determined by the Committee, to any consultants, counsel or other adviser. The Committee may select a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to that person’s independence from management, including the relevant factors set forth in the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) listing standards.

II. Structure and Operations

A. Composition. The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom may be determined by the Board to meet the independence requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), the NYSE and the Corporate Governance Guidelines of the Board (as each may be modified or supplemented). In affirmatively determining the independence of any director who will serve on the Committee, the Board must consider all factors specifically relevant to the Company which is material to that director’s ability to be independent from management in connection with the Committee member’s duties, including but not limited to:

- i. source of compensation of such director, including any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee paid by the Company to such director. Board should consider whether director receives compensation from any person or entity that would impair his/her ability to make independent judgments about the Company's executive compensation; and
- ii. whether such director is affiliated with the Company, a subsidiary of the Company or an affiliate of a subsidiary of the Company. Board should consider whether affiliate relationship places director under direct or indirect control of the Company or its senior management, or creates a direct relationship between director and members of senior management, in each case of a nature that would impair his/her ability to make independent judgments about the Company's executive compensation.

B. Appointment and Removal. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee of the Board. A Committee member shall serve until such member's successor is duly appointed or until such member's earlier resignation, death or removal. The members of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by majority vote of the Board.

C. Chairman. If a Committee Chair is not designated by the Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the Committee members.

D. Meetings.

1. The Committee shall meet at least twice annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Chairman of the Board or any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. All meetings may be held telephonically. The Committee may act by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee.

2. The Chair of the Committee, with input from the other members of the Committee and the representatives of the Company's senior management designated by the Chief Executive Officer, shall develop the agenda for each Committee meeting. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's counsel to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any member of, or consultants to, the Committee.

E. Subcommittees. The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion, provided any such subcommittees shall be composed entirely of independent directors.

III. Compensation Committee Responsibilities and Duties

A. Equity-Based Plans. The Committee shall make recommendations to the Board with respect to the adoption of equity-based plans.

B. Plan Administration. The Committee shall have full and final authority in connection with the administration of all plans of the Company under which incentive compensation and shares of common stock or other equity securities of the Company may be issued to directors and executive officers. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Committee shall, in its sole discretion, grant options and make awards of shares under the Company's stock plans.

C. Director Compensation. The Committee shall annually assess the adequacy and suitability of the Company's compensation plan for members of its Board. In carrying out this responsibility, the Committee shall consider whether the Company's director compensation plan is sufficient to enable the Company to attract talented and qualified individuals to serve on the Board and its standing committees. Where the Committee considers it appropriate, the Committee may engage compensation consultants to evaluate the adequacy of the Company's director compensation plan. The Committee shall prepare, as appropriate, modifications to the current director compensation plan and submit any such modifications to the full Board for its disposition.

D. Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") Compensation and Goals. The Committee shall annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, solicit input from all directors of the Company, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives, recommend to the non-management members of the Board the CEO's total annual compensation package based upon such evaluation, obtain approval of the CEO's compensation level and, thereafter, the Chair of the Committee shall provide development feedback to the CEO. In determining the long-term incentive component of CEO compensation, the Committee will consider the Company's performance and relative shareholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to CEOs at comparable companies, and the awards given to the CEO in past years.

E. Approval of Other Executive Officer Compensation. The Committee shall annually review with the CEO and make recommendations to the Board for approval the compensation of the executive officers of the Company other than the CEO, including: (a) annual base salary level, (b) the annual incentive opportunity level, (c) the long-term incentive opportunity level, and (d) any special or supplemental benefits.

F. Total Amounts Payable on Termination of Employment. The Committee shall review on an annual basis or such other time period as it deems appropriate, the total amounts payable to executive officers under all compensation and benefit plans and agreements under various termination of employment scenarios, including retirement and change of control.

G. Review of Compensation Discussion and Analysis; Compensation Committee Report. The Committee shall review and discuss the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management and based on such review and discussions recommend to the Board that such analysis be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K. The Committee shall also approve the Committee's compensation report required to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or other securities filings pursuant to SEC rules.

H. Other Activities. The Committee shall perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's bylaws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate, including a review and assessment of this Charter at least annually and the submission of any recommended changes therein to the Board.

I. Committee Minutes and Reports. The Committee shall maintain minutes of meetings and periodically report to the Board on significant results, activities, or recommendations of the Committee.

J. Section 16(b) Approvals. The Committee shall pre-approve all transactions in the Company's securities, by and between the Company and any director and executive officer of the Company, for which exemptive treatment from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act is sought.

K. Evaluations. This Committee shall be evaluated through the annual evaluation process administered by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee.

L. Employment Agreements. The Committee shall review and approve all employment agreements and severance arrangements for the CEO and all other executive officers of the Company.

M. Risk Assessment. The Committee shall oversee, and annually review, the Company's overall compensation policies and programs for employees, including non-executive officers, as they relate to risk management and risk-taking incentives.

N. Say on Pay. The Committee shall: (a) review the results of any advisory Say on Pay vote and consider whether to make any adjustments to the Company's executive compensation policies and practices, and (b) consider and recommend for approval by the Board the frequency with which the Company should submit to shareholders the advisory Say on Pay vote as required by the rules of the SEC, taking into account the results of any advisory shareholder vote on how often such Say on Pay votes should occur.

O. Clawback. The Committee shall be responsible for determining any incentive-based compensation recovery based upon the Company's Clawback Policy and any other applicable laws or requirements.

P. Assist the Board in evaluating potential candidates for executive positions, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and to oversee the development of executive succession plans.

Q. For any stock ownership guidelines established by the Company, review and report to the Board on levels of stock ownership by the officers and directors of the Company with respect to the Company's stock ownership guidelines (or requirements), including resolution of out-of-compliance situations.
